What is Fair Start Scotland?

Fair Start Scotland is the new employment support service for Scotland that will support participants to find the right job that meets their needs and is flexible enough for their circumstances.

Fair Start Scotland is different from other employment services as you choose whether to participate in Fair Start Scotland and if you decide to take part a dedicated adviser will work with you to help you achieve your potential.

Choosing to participate in Fair Start Scotland won't affect your existing benefits

Who is Fair Start Scotland for?

Fair Start Scotland may be the service for you, if you are:

- Living in Scotland and eligible to work in the United Kingdom;
- Are over 18 and out of work; or
- 16 or 17 and are either disabled or in receipt of Employment And Support Allowance or Universal Credit.

To find out if you are eligible contact Momentum directly.

The Fair Start Scotland journey

What will Fair Start Scotland do for me?

Fair Start Scotland is tailored to your needs, allowing us to offer you a broad range of support to suit your needs.

Help you achieve your goal of employment or self-employment – we'll give you a dedicated adviser who will help you search for work using a range of methods to suit your needs and will listen, guide and support you through your journey.

Develop your skills and experience – we'll recognise the skills and experience you already have and work with you to develop these further. We will also help you to improve your confidence along with creating and updating your CV and interview preparation.

Help you find suitable work placements or volunteering opportunities – we'll provide support and help you find work that suits your circumstances and will help build your experience. You will retain full choice and control over the support you receive at all times.
